You need a passionate and innovative team to build out one of the most innovative pipelines in the industry, and some of them are pictured here. As Novartis wraps up a breakthrough year during which we had six new medicines approved—a rare scientific feat—we're gathering in London today to share a deeper look at our R&D efforts. I'm grateful we could share this moment together and look forward to our continued work to reimagine medicine for the world. #novartis #reimaginingmedicine
