Our global health and corporate responsibility efforts focus in two areas: expanding access to healthcare and doing business responsibly. Our quarterly newsletter highlights the latest global health and corporate responsibility news.

SAVE THE DATE

Stakeholder dialogue: Reimagining access: how to make innovation accessible to more people in a sustainable way

This event continues our annual dialogue series and will take place on December 5, 2018, in Basel, Switzerland. Together, we will explore topics, such as innovative business models and financing mechanisms, adaptive development and digital health solutions as enablers for sustainable healthcare impact. Vas Narasimhan, CEO of Novartis, will deliver the keynote speech. A detailed agenda and the registration link will follow in October.

IN THE NEWS

Novartis appoints new Chief Ethics Risk and Compliance Officer

Dr. Klaus Moosmayer will become Chief Ethics, Risk and Compliance Officer on December 1, reporting to Vas Narasimhan, CEO of Novartis. He will become a member of the Executive Committee of Novartis.

Read more

Novartis reaffirms commitment to the fight against liver fluke

The agreement with the WHO for the donation of Egaten® for the treatment of liver fluke, was renewed until 2022. Liver fluke, also known as fascioliasis, infects more than 2.4 million people globally.

Read more
Sandoz and World Child Cancer renew partnership

The goal is to help continue to bridge the gap in healthcare access for pediatric oncology across the globe.

Read more

Novartis announces US renewables agreement to reduce greenhouse gas emissions

Virtual Power Purchase Agreement in collaboration with Invenergy aims to add 100 megawatts of wind power to the electrical grid.

Read more

STORIES
Nudging bias out of the organization

Paul Adang, our Global Head of Talent Acquisition & Staffing talks about ongoing recruitment efforts to create a more diverse and inclusive organization.

Read more

Meet Manuel Cobos, transplant surgeon and researcher

Follow Dr. Cobos, a transplant surgeon in Argentina and fellow of the Novartis Next Generation Scientist Program, as he works with patients suffering from liver failure.

Read more

Open resources at Novartis help drive innovation

With external help from Novartis, an Argentinian researcher was able to begin his search for a new medicine for tuberculosis.

Read more
OPINION & COMMENTARY

How can nations get the most for their money?

Deborah Gildea, Cluster Head Asia of Novartis Social Business, comments on the rising cost of healthcare in ASEAN for WEF.

Read more

Changing the health paradigm one country at a time

A medicine is only as good as the system that delivers it, says Harald Nusser, Head of Novartis Social Business.

Read more

WHO’s Independent High-level Commission on NCDs

Harald Nusser explains how the private sector can take some of its key recommendations forward.

Read more

Supporting women leaders in global health

Ann Aerts, Head of the Novartis Foundation, speaks about her passion for supporting women leaders in global health.

Read more

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

Novartis included in Dow Jones Sustainability World Index 2018

Novartis is pleased to be included in the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index and the DJSI Europe Index again this year. We are proud of our industry-leading performance in the areas of governance, environmental reporting, environmental policy and management systems, and human capital development.

Read more

Novartis #2 on Thomson Reuters Global Diversity & Inclusion Index 2018

Novartis has been ranked #2 out of the top 100 publicly traded companies that make up the Thomson Reuters Diversity & Inclusion Index, recognizing us as one of the most diverse and inclusive workplaces globally.

Read more